PRICE TEN CENTS

THREE KILLED ELEVEN INJURED IN TOLEDO RIOT

More Than Quarter Million on a Strike in Paris—Bomb Plot of Wide Proportions Discovered in Chicago.

TOLEDO—Rioting last night resulted in the loss of three lives and 11 injured. The authorities are awaiting action by the Governor on appeal of Mayor Schreiber that troops be sent to preserve order. Willy's Overland plants, at which 10,000 men have been on a strike for nearly a month closed today, following trouble of last night.

PARIS—A quarter of a million are on a strike in the Paris district. The unions affected are the subway, motor, bus, tram car metal workers, painters, printers, milliners, store clerks. They demand increased wages owing to the higher cost of living.

CHICAGO—Half a dozen are in custody today as bomb suspects. In one raid a quantity of explosives were found. From Daniel Colzin a practical confession has been obtained indicating connection of Chicago radicals with others in the East in a bomb plot of wide proportions.

CHICAGO—Federal authorities are convinced that the Palmer bomb outrages were conducted from the anarchist's headquarters at Chicago.

WASHINGTON—Amendments to the League of Nations to safeguard America's and particularly California's interests will be offered by Senator Hiram B. Johnson of California so that Japan cannot put the California alien land law, immigration of Japanese, or California school legislation relating to Orientals before the League of Nations. "The questions belong to the people of California," said Johnson.

WASHINGTON—Joseph P. Carney, Democrat, of Milwaukee has presented claims for the seat of Victor Berger, because of the latter's conviction of crime.

PARIS—Germany's offer to pay one hundred billion marks indemnity instead of an indeterminate amount as first demanded will probably be accepted; also minor modifications will be granted. The atmosphere is full of speculations as to the modifications which the council of four will likely clear up by a definite statement tomorrow.

ARCHANGEL—1600 of the 339th Infantry, following a review by General Wilds P. Richardson of the American army and General Irons, the British commander and Governor General, embarked at the economic winter port of Archangel for home via Brest. General Richardson expects to make his headquarters at Archangel for a considerable time.

WASHINGTON—Plans for the establishment of steamship lines connecting American Atlantic German and Pacific ports with South America and Central America, were laid before the Pan-American Commercial Conference today by Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the Shipping Board. The plans call for direct lines from New York to Brazil, Argen-

KETCHIKAN IS AFFECTED BY THE CANADIAN STRIKE

(Ketchikan News)

Returning last night from Prince Rupert, the King and Winge reported that it was unable to dispose of its halibut there as the strike in sympathy with the workers in Winnipeg had gone into effect and the railroads and docks were tied up tight. Other fishing vessels from Ketchikan had gone there; among them, the J. P. Todd, and it continued on to Seattle to dispose of the catch.

All railroad traffic from Prince Rupert east is at a standstill, the fishermen report, so that Ketchikan will have to dispose of its fish through Seattle or not at all.—Empire.

A. Johnson, a Petersburg boy who enlisted shortly after the United States declared war, arrived on the Princess Mary and spent two or three days visiting his sister, Mrs. Clarence Lawrence. Mr. Johnson has been overseas 18 months. His discharge states that he took part in seven battles. In common with many returned men he is very reticent about discussing his experiences in the war.

Waldo Mills and M. Dempsey of Sitka who have been in military service overseas for more than a year, were aboard the Admiral Evans Monday en route home. In company with them was Miss Waldo of San Francisco, a cousin of Mr. Mills. While the vessel was in port the party were guests of their friends, the Bronsons.

Charlie Vance of Telegraph Creek arrived on the Hazel B yesterday morning and will spend a few days here on business.

tina and Chile, and from New Orleans to the west coast of South America and to Seattle.

PARIS—Including the women, the strikers in Paris and suburbs number fully 400,000.

SAN FRANCISCO—In response to calls from the influenza ravaged inhabitants of the territory around Bristol Bay, the cruiser Marblehead sailed today for those sections via Bremerton, with a physicians' and nurses' unit.

WASHINGTON—Woman suffrage amendment resolutions passed the Senate late yesterday and now goes to States for ratification by legislatures.

LAREDO—A regiment of new-equipped Carranza troops sent to attack Villa forces at Parral went over to the Revolutionary forces in a body without engaging in a single combat with them.

WASHINGTON—Senator Lodge charges that while the full treaty of peace was being withheld from Congress he had seen the complete treaty in a New York business house which had been sent out by one of the American representatives in Paris. Senator Borah made a similar charge.

BERLIN—The German government has issued an order for the arrest of Dr. Dorten, president of the new Rhenish Republic.

WASHINGTON—Twenty-five million dollars' worth of surplus army food supplies have been sold for distribution to twenty million heads of Russian families, Balfour told the House Military Committee yesterday, stating also that possibly some food would reach the Bolsheviks.

SAWYER IS NOW CHARGED WITH BEING SLACKER

Second Charge Is Brought Against Secretary of Labor Union—Bond In This Case
Is Fixed at $5000.00.

E. P. Walker on Wednesday filed a complaint against B. R. Sawyer charging him with violating the Selective Service law, enacted August 31, 1918, requiring all persons between the ages of 18 and 45 to register for military service.

Sawyer has been in jail since May 25, charged with having seditious literature in his possession, the charge having been sworn to by Ensign J. J. Hughes of Sub-Marine Chaser 309.

At 11 o'clock yesterday Sawyer was taken from the jail by the marshal and brought before United States Commissioner C. E. Weber.

The defendant refused to make any statement under oath regarding his alleged evasion of the draft law. The Commissioner bound him over to await the action of the grand jury and fixed his bond at $5,000.

When Sawyer was brought before the Commissioner on May 26 charged with having seditious literature in his possession he was bound over to await the action of the grand jury and his bond fixed at $2000.

It will now require $7000 to obtain Sawyer's release from jail until the next term of court.

At the time of Sawyer's arrest he was secretary of Wrangell Local No. 10, Alaska Labor Union, an organization having 260 members.

Notice to the Public

Wrangell Local No. 10, Alaska Labor Union, announces that by a unanimous vote taken at a meeting it was decided that the Union would stand by B. R. Sawyer, former secretary of the organization, until such time as he is proven guilty of the charge on which he was arrested on May 25.

Arthur H. Bannon, the big game hunter, of Portsmouth, Ohio, returned on the Hazel B No. 3 Wednesday morning from a most successful trip up the Clearwater in company with Captain A. C. Conover. Mr. Bannon bagged three grizzlies and one black bear. One of the grizzlies killed by Mr. Bannon was an unusually large one, the skin measuring 10 feet. This is the third season Mr. Bannon has hunted in the Cassiar and he becomes more enthusiastic about the northern country with each trip.

Those who were concerned in the magazine subscription canvas conducted recently by St. Philip's guild will be interested to know that the sum of $31.30 was realized in commissions. This amount was turned into the Armenian-Syrian Relief Fund maintained by the guild, and with the money on hand a check for $50 was forwarded to headquarters.

WASHINGTON—James Wickersham, claiming election by a majority of votes as Alaskan delegate, has asked Congress for the place of Charles A. Sulzer, deceased.

For the first time in Wrangell's voting history, women served on the election board last Tuesday. Mrs. M. O. Johnson and Mrs. Josephine Mason had been appointed by the Mayor at the last meeting of the Council.

Mrs. J. W. Pritchett substituted for Mrs. Johnson who left for the South sooner than she had intended. Mr. Worden not being able to leave his work or find a substitute elsewhere, prevailed upon his wife to take his place, so that they were startled looking soundboughs who opened the door of the City Hall and saw three women sitting about the table. The election was so quiet that the women, finding time dragging on their hands, sent home for something to do; so one woman was busily engaged in knitting a scarf for a refugee child, another was industriously darning her husband's socks, while the third was occupied in some needlework for her little grandchild. Only Tom Case and L. M. Churchill, without whom a Wrangell election cannot be declared legal, gave a familiar touch to the background. It can not be definitely known how much knowledge these gentlemen of the board acquired during the day, but it is their own fault if they are not well posted on the latest word in cooking and household management. A distinctly feminine touch was given the

MEMORIAL OBSERVANCE

Memorial Day was fittingly observed in Wrangell last Friday. At one o'clock in the afternoon an excellent program was rendered in the Redmen's hall which was crowded beyond its seating capacity. F. H. Gray presided. Seated on the rostrum with Mr. Gray were Rev. J. S. Clark, Ensign W. J. Carruthers, Rev. H. P. Corser, and E. Ludecke. Every number on the program was a success.

At the conclusion of the program a line was formed for a march to the city float where boats had been provided to take all persons to the cemetery who wished to go. The parade was headed by the Wrangell Native band; then came returned soldiers in uniform. After the soldiers came the Redmen, and these were followed by citizens. At the float two boats were in waiting. They were the Eagle from the A. P. A. cannery and the Columbia & Northern's boat, the Martha, with a scow in tow. A good portion of the population made the voyage to the cemetery where the graves of old soldiers and others were decorated. There are still several soldiers whose graves are without headstones. An effort will be made to obtain markers from the Government for these graves, even though some of the required data is lacking.

The presence of the venerable Mr. E. Ludecke who came from the Pioneers' home at Sitka especially for the occasion, was greatly appreciated by everyone. On account of having come to Wrangell in the early seventies Mr. Ludecke was able to render some valuable service in the way of identifying the graves of some of his soldier friends.

The Memorial observance was made doubly successful on account of the Wrangell band donating its services for the occasion.

There was a meeting of citizens at the town hall Monday night for the purpose of making preparations for a Fourth of July celebration. An executive committee composed of J. G. Grant, H. D. Campbell and P. C. Cormack was appointed with power to appoint all other committees. It is understood that the executive committee will have a meeting tonight. Their appointments will be announced next week.

A Word from Mr. Ludecke

To the People of Wrangell:
I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation for the kindness you have shown me. I have no words to make known the pleasure it has been for me to have this visit in my home town, and to see all my old friends again; and I am very glad if I have been able to render any assistance in honoring the memory of the comrades gone before.
Edward Ludecke.

situation when after the ballot box was opened and it was found that the customary needle for stringing the ballots was lost, one of the women produced her crochet work and by a simple twist of the wrist accomplished the task. But without doubt it was the first time Wrangell ballots had ever been strung like that. A married man present expressed surprise that it was a crochet hook and not a hairpin that was brought to the rescue.

The women of the election board stated that while they found the day tiring on account of its inactivity they were nevertheless glad of the insight they gained of election routine.

THREE ALIENS ARE FINED FOR ILLEGAL FISHING

Complaints Were Filed by E. P. Walker, Inspector, Alaska Service, Bureau
of Fisheries.

United States Commissioner C. E. Weber on Tuesday fined three aliens for illegal fishing. The complaints were filed by E. P. Walker, Inspector, Alaska Service, U. S. Bureau of Fisheries.

On Monday night Mr. Walker, in company with Fish Wardens F. H. Gray and M. J. C. Connor caught several men fishing whom they believed to be aliens. Mr. Walker requested them to report at the court house at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, and to be prepared at that time to show papers that would establish their right to fish.

At the examination which was held Tuesday morning it was found that there was one alien who had never had papers of any kind, and two or three who held first papers that had expired. Mr. Walker then filed complaints against these aliens, charging them with illegal fishing. The men against whom charges were made plead guilty. The Commissioner then fixed their fines as follows:

Kusti Joki, $150 and costs.
Jacob Hollingstad, $100 and costs.

John Samikosa, $100 and costs.
Farwell to Mrs. M. O. Johnson

The Fido club gave a farewell party on Saturday evening to Mrs. M. O. Johnson who was leaving the next day for a visit of several months in the States.

The party was held in the hunkaw residence of Messrs. Jakobitz and Wickstrom. There was a feast of good things to eat served in picnic style. One of the chief functions of the Fido club is to hold picnics, and when for any reason the club does not meet in the open its gathering is known as an "indoor picnic." This is not the first time Messrs. Jakobitz and Wickstrom have been hosts at an "indoor picnic" and owing to their unusual hospitality they have become famous among the Fidos and entitled to wear special collars as a reward for their great service to the organization.

At the close of the dinner Leo McCormack, president of the club, proposed a toast to Mrs. Johnson to whom he referred as one of the club's oldest and most beloved members. In responding Mrs. Johnson expressed surprise that any reference had been made to her age, and doubted if she were really the oldest member. She further stated that she would greatly miss the many good times that she knew were in store for the members of the Fido club during the summer.

Following the feast the guests indulged in card playing and dancing until 11 o'clock when they adjourned to the Redmen's hall where a dance was being given by the North Star orchestra.

Wm. Berwin Lewis, a member of the crew of the Admiral Evans, fell from the boat while she was in port Tuesday and was severely injured on the head. Mr. Lewis was near death from the shock, but is now doing very nicely. He is at the Wrangell hotel under the care of Dr. Shurick.

DO NOT DODGE.

Whatever the difficulties to be met they are not made easier by trying to dodge them. In trying to dodge a missile from one direction you may come in line with one from a different direction. When we dodge trouble we are more than likely to get into other trouble no less easy to endure. Look with courage on what must be met. Faced with courage, difficulties are half conquered. Better meet and conquer difficulties than to dodge them. Do not dodge—duties that devolve on you.
Duties performed add strength and dignity to character, says Milwaukee Journal. It matters little what these duties are; though they be of the simplest and humblest, well and truly done, they acquire dignity. Stand up bravely and squarely to meet the difficulties of life. With courage you will conquer. You will come through life with fewer scars than by trying to dodge duty or difficulty. Trying to evade begets in a man a cringing spirit. He gets a habit of trucking, and upright, self-respecting manhood is gone. Don't dodge if you would hold yourself above meanness.

Chateau-Thierry! The words are opulent in suggestiveness. It was there that the soldiers from America dared hell for the cause of humanity and their flag and turned a German hope into a despair. It was Chateau-Thierry that gave the Germans the first taste of America's fighting qualities and revealed to our brothers in arms the invincibility of the boys who had come across the seas to put shoulders to theirs. Chateau-Thierry looms large in the war. It will loom spectacular in history. It will be a shrine for American hearts, says Louisville Courier-Journal. Soon there must stand upon that battlefield a monument to the heroism of American boys who achieved the impossible and who sealed the death warrant for the Kaiser's army. And Argonne forest and St.
Mihiel—the whole procession of them leads to Sedan. Chateau-Thierry was the gateway to the end.

Verbal controversy is one of the most useless things in this world.
People who engage in it could seldom be convinced by any argument, however logical and however temperately presented. But the trouble is that, logical or not, the dispute rarely is conducted in a moderate way. The argumentative ones grow excited in spite of themselves; sometimes they become angry, sometimes they are merely "hurt." In any case they are likely to become incoherent or discourteous according to their temperament and to part with coolness, all because they do not know when to stop.

Provisional President Daszynski is a resident of Cracow, the second largest city of Galicia, which former crownland is to be incorporated into the Polish republic. Daszynski was for many years a member of the Austrian parliament from Cracow and worked tirelessly for Polish political freedom. He is an all-around statesman, possessing great natural ability developed by long parliamentary experience. He is also one of the ablest lawyers in central Europe.

Von Bernhardt wrote a book, "How Germany Makes War." Who will write its sequel, "How Germany Makes Peace?" She makes war in an advancing attack with the upraised sword in one hand and the torch in the other, but she makes peace on her knees, with her hands outstretched, begging for bread.

Italy was the first victor of the war, for she drove the invaders out of her territory and sent her troops upon enemy soil before the call for peace ended the actual battles. The Italians have fought like heroes and no small part of the glory will be theirs when the history of the war comes to be written.

Great Britain's war debt is more than $35,000,000,000, and her war bonds are owned by fully a third of all persons living in the British Islands.
Bonds so held may be rather an asset than a liability in the last analysis of their effect on national energy.

It is said that hatred of England is growing in Germany. The Hun is quite capable of believing that the entente nations did Germany a great wrong by defending themselves from her aggression and by refusing to sacrifice themselves to insure her the coveted place in the sun.

Europe has been astonished at the rapidity of the United States in turning itself into a fighting nation, but, then, history could have reminded them of that from the start we were a country of minute men.

One remembers when certain people nodded wisely and said, "You mark my words—the German fleet will come out before long." And it did!

And now the manufacturers say that soap is going up—just when the world needs it most.

A WORLD JUBILEE.

The suggestion of a world jubilee to be held in the United States on July 4, 1919, to celebrate the allied victory—a suggestion that has been put into the concrete form of a resolution and introduced in congress—will doubtless meet with an enthusiastic response throughout the country and in other countries. Whether it will be practicable to hold such a celebration next year depends largely upon the manner in which events shape themselves during the next few months.
If the revolutionary movements now in progress throughout the central empires are quieted soon and the peace conference succeeds in promptly and amicably adjusting all the various issues that will come before it, next American Independence day may properly be observed as Independence day for the whole world, says Washington Post. Otherwise it may be necessary to postpone it until a later date. The celebration should be at the proper time, when the stage is properly set.
It would contribute largely to the new era of friendship that is ushered in by the end of the war, and would help to cement in strong ties the nations of the world. War, it is hoped, is now a thing of the past, and in its place is to come a new understanding among the powers, through which their disputes will be adjusted without recourse to the sword. A celebration of the sort proposed will promote good feeling and confidence, and it should be held at the earliest appropriate time.

It is fitting that the historic room which saw the birth of Bismarck's Germany, the autocratic, militaristic, brutal, lawless, aggressive Germany, should also see its death. It is well that the nation, whose rulers stood triumphant over the fallen foe in the throne room of their ancient kings, should send their delegates today to this very room, there to atone for the injustice of the last, says New York Sun. It is a satisfaction due to France.
It is a humiliation which should symbolize for German militarists the end of their dreams of world power, the discredit of the false ideals upon which their empire was founded, the passing away of the old Germany, the beginning of the new.

German "efficiency" was an abject failure in Alsace and Lorraine as in Schleswig-Holstein, and in Poland, and in Africa. It consisted merely in rigid-ity of rule, in a refusal to recognize the native rights of subject people.
And yet these were the people, these Germans, who set out to accomplish world domination, says Washington Star.
The tears that are now being shed by the people of Alsace and Lorraine, tears of joy for their liberation from German rule, are the surest proof of the righteousness of the present victory over the most evil power the world has ever known.

Under the agreement of the United States food administration with the food controllers of the allied nations, our breadstuffs export program for the coming year will aggregate 400-520,000 bushels, which is equivalent to more than 60 bushels for every farm in the United States. The program calls principally for wheat, but from 100,000,000 to 165,000,000 bushels may be of other cereals, including rye, barley, and corn.

It is said the poor in Austria gather at the doors of the hotels in the cities and fight for the scraps of food.
That is the end of the dream of world domination by which the Kaiser and his militarist advisers have brought such disaster upon his allies, who, in their blind folly, allowed him to lead them to their ruin as sacrifices to his ambition.

Price quotations of 50 years ago show "frying size" chickens selling at from $1.50 to $2.50 a dozen, bacon 6 to 17 cents a pound and sugar 16½ cents a pound. Thus we learn of all the ages and foremost in the files of time perceive that the onward march of civilization has brought us the blessing of cheaper sugar!

It will be just like posterity to become cynical and ungrateful enough to remark that the Americans of our generation were patriotic, altruistic and abundantly blessed with vision, but none too heavily endowed with common sense.

It is good to know that Kolchak has been made dictator at Omsk. After that the arrest of Avksenteff and Zensenoff comes with the logic of a proposition in mathematics. But Vologodsky and the rest of the alphabet still remain to be dealt with as they deserve.

Premier Clemenceau has asked for a legal opinion as to the rights of the allies to demand the extradition of William Hohenzollern, which indicates that the allies have in mind what most of us over here are thinking about.

Restoration to the ranks of productive toilers of the men hitherto "laid on the shelf" because they were past sixty years old is one of the pleasing results of the war.

Tough Boots for Tough Jobs

Whether you're felling timber, prospecting, or fishing, there's a Goodrich Boot that will carry you farther and last you longer than any other you can buy in Alaska.

It's not made like other boots—it's different, made IN ONE SINGLE PIECE with a sole tough as a tire tread that you'll never need to half sole.

In this ad we show only one style of Goodrich Footwear—the Brown Driver. Possibly you could use the knee-high White Short, the 9-inch Dehigh or the White Hip to better advantage. You'll find Goodrich "Hi-Press" prices no higher than for ordinary boots—and Goodrich will last you twice as long.

America's Immortals

Most striking instances of gallantry for which the Distinguished Service Cross has been awarded

Among the thousands of American soldiers who were awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous bravery on the field of battle in France, there were a few whose feats were of such an unusual character as to stand out above the others. General Pershing's staff has selected a number of these most notable cases of bravery on the part of the fighting Americans, and a few of them are given below. They present only a few of the thousands of acts of heroism that are given recognition in the official records of the war department.

OSCAR F. MILLER,
Major, 361st Infantry.

Maj. Miller received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action near Gesmes, France, September 28, 1918. After two days of intense physical and mental strain, during which Maj. Miller had led his battalion in the front line of the advance, through the forest of Argonne, the enemy was met in a prepared position south of Gesmes. Though almost exhausted, he energetically reorganized his battalion and ordered an attack. Upon reaching open ground, the advancing line began to waver in the face of machine gun fire from the front and flanks and direct artillery fire. Personally leading his command group forward between his front line companies, Maj. Miller inspired his men by his personal courage and they again pressed on toward the hostile position. As this officer led the renewed attack he was shot in the right leg, but he nevertheless staggered forward at the head of his command. Soon afterward he was again shot in the right arm, but he continued the charge, personally cheering his troops on through the heavy machine gun fire. Just before the objective was reached he received a wound in the abdomen, which forced him to the ground, but he continued to urge his men on, telling them to push on to the next ridge and leave him where he lay. He died from his wounds a few days later. Maj. Miller's widow lives at 1727 West Fifty-first street, Los Angeles, Cal.

HENRY G. COSTON,
Private, Company H, 15th Infantry.

Conspicuous gallantry resulting in wounds which caused his death won the Distinguished Service Cross for Private Coston. Near Bois de Consenvoye, France, October 8, 1918, when the advance of his platoon had been held up by machine gun fire, and a request was made for an automatic rifle team to charge the nest, Private Coston was the first to volunteer. Going forward with his team under terrific fire of enemy artillery, machine guns and trench mortars, Private Coston continued to advance after all his comrades had become casualties and he himself had received serious wounds. He operated his gun until he collapsed, but his act resulted in the capture of about 100 prisoners and several machine guns. He died shortly after from the effects of his wounds. Private Coston's widow lives at 615 Mason avenue, Cape Charles, Va.

JESSE N. FUNK,
Private, First Class, Co. L, 354th Infantry.

Private Funk received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action near Bois de Bantheville, France, October 31, 1918. Learning that two daylight patrols had been caught out in No Man's Land and were unable to return, Private Funk and another stretcher bearer, upon their own initiative, made two trips five hundred yards beyond our lines, under constant machine gun fire and rescued two wounded officers. His father, Martin Funk, lives in Calhan, Colo.

JOSEPH A. BUFFALO,
Private, Company F, 258th Infantry.

Private Buffalo, who lives with his mother, Mrs. Pearl E. Buffalo, at Boxby, Okla., was decorated for extraordinary heroism in action near Fey-en-Have, France, September 12, 1918. Although he was seriously wounded early in action, Private Buffalo remained in the fight throughout the day, lending small parties of men against machine gun emplacements, killing two of the enemy himself and refusing to be evacuated until late at night, unable to fight further.

CLIFFORD E. MELLEEN,
Private, Company A, 104th Infantry.

Disregard of his own safety in an effort to save his comrades won the Distinguished Service Cross for Private Melleen. The act was performed in the Bois Haumont, France, October 15, 1918. Private Melleen, an officer, and eight other soldiers, were surrounded by the enemy in a shell hole, into which an enemy grenade was thrown, landing directly in the midst of the group. Disregarding his own safety, this soldier seized the grenade and attempted to throw it out, but it exploded in his hand just as he succeeded in getting it above the level of the ground. His prompt action saved the lives of the men in the shell hole, but he was severely wounded. Private Melleen lives with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Melleen, 28 Worcester street, Worcester, Mass.

PARKER C. DUNN,
Private, First Class, 1st Battalion, 312th Infantry.

Private Dunn (deceased) was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action near Grande-Pre, France, October 23, 1918. When his battalion commander found it necessary to send a message to a company in the attacking line and hesitated to order a runner to make the trip because of the extreme danger involved, Private Dunn, a member of the intelligence section, volunteered for the mission. After advancing but a short distance across a field swept by artillery and machine gun fire he was wounded a second time. Still undaunted, he persistently attempted to carry out his mission until he was killed by a machine gun bullet before reaching the advanced line. He lived in Albany, N. Y.

ALEXANDER R. SKINKER,
Captain, 138th Infantry.

Capt. Alexander R. Skinker (deceased) was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action at Cheppy, France, September 26, 1918. Unwilling to sacrifice his men when his company was held up by terrific machine gun fire from iron pill boxes in the Hindenburg line, Captain Skinker personally led an automatic rifleman and a carrier in an attack on the machine guns. The carrier was killed instantly, but Captain Skinker seized the ammunition and continued through an opening in the barbed wire, feeding the automatic rifle until he was killed, too. His widow lives at 646 Elmwood avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

PATRICK GARRITY,
Private, Company C, 354th Infantry.

Private Garrity was decorated for conspicuous bravery in action near Remonville, France, November 1, 1918. When his company was advancing across an open field an enemy machine gun opened fire upon it from the left front. Private Garrity and two other soldiers being on that flank of the company, immediately advanced upon it. His two comrades were shot down, but Private Garrity advanced alone at a run; and with his bayonet drove the three Germans from their guns into a near-by dugout, capturing them and the gun. Private Garrity's home address is 3741 Kenmore avenue, Chicago, Ill.

ROBERT L. BLACKWELL,
Private, Co. K, 119th Infantry.

Robert L. Blackwell (deceased) was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action near St. Souplet, France, October 11, 1918. When his platoon was almost surrounded by the enemy and his platoon commander asked for volunteers to carry a message calling for reinforcements, Private Blackwell volunteered for this mission, well knowing the extreme danger connected with it. In attempting to get through the heavy shell and machine gun fire this gallant soldier was killed. The address of his father is James B. Blackwell, R. F. D. No. 2, Hindles, N. C.

CLAYTON K. SLACK,
Private, Company D, 124th M. G. B.

Private Slack received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous intrepidity in action near Consenvoye, France, October 8, 1918. Observing German soldiers under cover fifty yards away on the left flank, Private Slack, upon his own initiative, rushed them with his rifle, and single-handed captured ten prisoners and two heavy machine guns, thus saving his company and neighboring organizations from heavy casualties. His home is with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Mae Slack, Lampson, Wis.

HOWARD E. MADSEN,
Sergeant, Co. D, 115th Infantry.

Sergeant Madsen was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action at Bois-de-Consenvoye, France, October 22, 1918. When the platoon which he was commanding was held up by an enemy machine gun nest, Sergeant Madsen, taking an armful of grenades, advanced alone over ground swept by machine gun fire, put the machine gun out of action, routed the enemy and permitted the platoon to advance without casualties. His mother, Mrs. Mary V. Madsen, lives in Baltimore, Md.

Chicken on a Jag.

A chicken owned by a woman living near Jeffersonville, Ind., "got on a jag" a day or two ago but it was the owner's fault, the chicken might plead. She had some whisky put away, used on physician's prescription for her heart. The chicken was sick and she diagnosed the case as heart trouble so thought she would try the same remedy. She gave it "the tiniest drop," but the chicken did not need much. Neighbors say they are satisfied the chicken was cured, but it immediately began a furious war dance, exemplified the different steps of all the different redskin tribes, passed from these to the waltz, two-step, one-step and other dances not yet invented, and according to the faithful narrator tried to sing "The Star-Spangled Banner," but this is probably an exaggeration, even if not actually untrue.

Is God Your Friend? Then Visit His Home. Go to Church.

WATCH the long line of people entering church on Sunday. Isn't it a fact that they are really the worth while people in the community? If you are a business man, don't you prefer dealing with a man who is a CONSISTENT CHURCHGOER rather than with a man who never goes to church? You wouldn't hesitate to INVITE ANY AND ALL OF THESE PEOPLE entering church to your home.

A MAN WHO GOES TO CHURCH CAN NOT GO WRONG VERY LONG. A COMMON EXPRESSION IS THAT SOME PEOPLE GO TO CHURCH TO KEEP UP APPEARANCES.

THAT MAY BE TRUE. BUT THE FACT THAT A MAN WANTS THE COMMUNITY IN WHICH HE LIVES TO THINK THAT HE IS GOOD AND GOD FEARING SHOWS THAT HE WANTS TO BE GOOD. HE WANTS TO ENJOY THE RESPECT OF HIS FELLOWS. WHILE THERE MAY BE SOME HYPOCRITES IN THE CHURCH, IT IS NO EXAGGERATION TO STATE THAT THE GREAT MAJORITY OF CHURCHGOERS ARE HONEST, UPRIGHT CITIZENS.

There is something basically wrong with a man who, while professing a belief in a Supreme Being, fails to take the opportunity the church affords to WORSHIP THAT SUPREME BEING. If you have a dear friend and you pass his house every day without dropping in to see him, you would not blame that man for DOUBTING THE SINCERITY of your friendship.

Do you wish God to DOUBT YOUR FRIENDSHIP? Do you want to LOSE HIM AS A FRIEND. If you don't, drop into his house AT LEAST ONCE A WEEK.

Show that you are sincere in your belief in God by GOING TO CHURCH next Sunday.

THEN GO TO CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY.

About thirty young people were invited to the J. E. Worden home last Monday night complimentary to Wallace Turner who will spend the summer in Wrangell.

The first part of the evening was spent in playing games, then the rugs were taken up from the spacious living room and dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening, partners being selected in a unique manner.

The party was in the nature of a surprise for the honor guest, who had been invited to dinner with his cousin May Goodrich. On returning to the Worden home he found the guests assembled and ready to show him what a good time he could expect while in Wrangell.

The Columbia Northern gave him a check for $164.46 for his catch. This is certainly a profitable night's work for a one-armed man alone in the boat. There were too many fish for Mr. Spalding's boat to hold so he had to get help to bring them to town.

Miss Ann O'Connor made a round trip to the West Coast on the Glenora this week.

Charcoal Point probably will be a part of Ketchikan town within a few weeks, as the residents have indicated their desire to have the section annexed to the municipality. An enthusiastic meeting was held last night by the residents there and the necessary steps were taken to bring about the desire of the majority of the people.

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your rig in the middle of the road and go to a fence-post to read a sale bill do you? Then don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an ad in this paper, then, regardless of the weather, the fellow you want to reach reads your announcements while seated at his fireside.

If he is a prospective buyer you'll have him at your sale. One extra buyer often pays the entire expense of the ad, and it's a poor ad that won't pull that buyer.

An ad in this paper reaches the people you are after.

Bills may be a necessity, but the ad is the thing that does the business.

Don't think of having a special sale without using advertising space in this paper.
